Located at the southern end of Daytona Beach, on the Halifax River, the buildings, slips, marine railways, etc., cover several acres. A special dredged channel, 100 feet wide and several hundred yards long, brings you in from the Intracoastal Waterway—the channel being clearly marked every few feet with sizable pilings suitably painted, and marked.

D-234—WALKER NEWS CO., DAYTONA BEACH, FLA.
PHOTO BY R. H. LE SESNE

GENUINE CURTEICH-CHICAGO "C.T. ART-COLORTONE" POST CARD (REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.)

POST CARD

PLACE
ONE CENT
STAMP
HERE

OB-H351

Yacht Basin and Boat Works, Daytona Beach, Fla.